What is not included in the warranty:

1. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the product arising from work done by anyone person other than Queeny Stone.
2. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the product during transportation, fabrication, installation or workmanship.
3. The Warranty does not cover any irregularity in the slab that existed in the material prior to fabricating and installation and was present in the final installed product. This is a fabrication issue.
4. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the product which results from it being use as flooring or outdoor application (including swimming pools or in areas near swimming pools).
5. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, discoloration of, the product which is exposed to direct sunlight, ultraviolet radiation, chemicals, flames, excessive heat, or silicon(or similar).
6. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the product which results from placing hot items including, but not limited to, hot pans, electric frying pans or oven trays directly on the Slab.
7. Queeny stone does not warrant material that has been damaged when used in the application of fireplaces due to heat output.

8. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the product which results from the use of products which contain trichlorethane or methylene chloride (such as paint removers or stripper) or cleaning agents which have high alkaline/PH levels.

9. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the product which results from not being cleaned in accordance with the Queeny Stone Care and Maintenance Guide.

10. The Warranty does not cover any damage to the product as a result of applying excessive weight to the surface, such sitting, climbing or standing on the product.

11. The Warranty does not cover any modification or alteration to the surface of Queeny Stone.

12. Given that Queeny Stone slabs are made from Natural Quartz and therefore some variations in colour and aggregate may occur due to raw materials. Particles used in the products may sometimes produce minor irregularities such as blotches and coloured particles. Each slab is unique and will contain variations in shading, reflectivity and the distribution and appearance of quartz. The appearance of each slab will also vary depending on lighting conditions, placement and viewing angle. Consequently, a) Variations in color, pattern or shade of the material against sample material, displayed or illustrated material; b) Variations in color, pattern or shade of the material occurred between batches; c) Variations in appearance caused by artificial or natural lighting; are not covered by the warranty.

13. Failure of adhesives, caulking materials, damage resulting due to the accessories installed failure due to inadequate support to joints and seams.

14. Failure to follow any procedures, instructions and recommendations given in the product Manual provided to the fabricators and/or Customers.

15. Cracks in the material are not a material fault. They are not covered in the warranty and are usually a result of, a) Mechanical stress on the material after installation; b) Settlement or movement in joinery or house as a whole; c) Excessive weight being placed on the tops, such as standing, sitting; d) Excessive heat or flames; e) Sink or cook top cut out; f) "U" or "L" shaped cut out / improper installation.

16. Chipping is not a material fault; it is normally a direct result due to impact to the edge of the surface. Chips are not covered by warranty.

17. The Warranty does not cover any defect in, or damage to, the Product which results from mishandling or misuse.

18. The warranty does not apply if the material is not installed by a qualified and licensed stonemason.

19. The warranty is applicable to the original purchaser of the materials and is not transferable to subsequent owners.

20. The warranty excludes material that has been moved from their original place of installation.

21. Very infrequent 'grayish' or 'reddish' dots in the 'Shinning' colors are normal. These dots are the reverse side of a mirror and are an expected result of the manufacturing process. Other very inconsistent small dots are part of the natural quartz used in the manufacturing process and are an accepted part of the material. 'Shinning' colors may show small pitting on the surface due to the manufacturing processes of the mirror (glass). This is unavoidable and not considered a fault in the Product. We suggest inspection of slabs prior to purchase or cutting as no claims will be considered relating to pitting in the 'Shinning' colors. On Calacatta range colors, some black/grayish dots may appear both large and small. There may also be inconsistencies in the veining pattern or background. This is not a defect; the inconsistencies are designed to mirror the look of natural stone. Shadow range colors include sporadic small circles and darker spots. These inclusions are not faults but are added intentionally and add to the unique & inconsistent character of the stone.
